THESE MEN

What The Conservatives
Stand For

NATURAL RESOURCES

- A vigorous gas export policy based on sound economics.
- Conservation of our forest resources and a fair deal to our independent operators by ending the practice of granting perpetual monopolies of large tracts of timber limits.

EDUCATION

- Revision of our primary and secondary school course of study.
- Restoration of Matriculation standards to a level acceptable by every Canadian University.
- Restoration of the two-year minimum teacher training course, or its equivalent.
- Increased share of local school costs to be borne by Provincial Government.

MUNICIPALITIES

- A fair share for Calgary and other municipalities of the revenues collected by the Provincial Government in excess of those required for the essential Government needs.

AGRICULTURE

- Provincial loans to young farmers to enable them to become established on the land.
- Positive action to recapture and maintain markets for farm products.
- Support of farm producer co-operatives.

HIGHWAYS

- Sound financing, better construction and better maintenance of highways throughout Alberta.
- Greater financial assistance for municipal roads.

GOVERNMENT

- Elimination of waste and extravagance.
- Government by the Legislature in place of Government by the Cabinet.

PUBLIC HEALTH AND SOCIAL WELFARE

- Maintenance and extension of Old Age Pensions, Mothers Allowances, Disability Pensions and other welfare legislation.
- Extension of Provincial Aid to the care of chronic convalescent patients.

LABOR

- Improvement of existing legislation.

The Conservatives sincerely believe that an elected representative's first responsibility is to his constituents!

A good representative must put the welfare of his constituents first!

Papers Publicly Acclaim

Sound Aggressive Opposition

Of Conservatives In Last House

"It should be acknowledged here and now that the small group of these Conservatives in the Alberta Legislature is providing the best and strongest opposition at the current session . . . They hit hard. They aren't always right, of course, but just the same they are serving the public well."
