FOR LEADERSHIP IN CANADA

A CCF Government in Saskatchewan will continue to press the Federal Government to:

- protect farm and community interests in rail line abandonment
- implement national health insurance, including drug benefits
- provide a new deal for Indian citizens
- provide adequate financial aid for education
- broaden social security and include contributory portable pensions
- provide a fair sharing of national income taxes
- establish long-term arrangements to guarantee fair prices and permanent markets for agricultural products
- institute a new national highway policy
