1967 THE CCF PROGRAM
MEANS PROGRESS FOR YOU

- 1 Increased education grants to:
 - Cut spiralling local taxes
 - Expand opportunities for Saskatchewan young people
 - Eliminate tuition fees
- 2 • All regular provincial highways paved or oiled
 - An all-weather road to every occupied farm
- 3 • Dental care for children
 - A prescription drug plan
- 4 A $100 million Development Corporation to develop Saskatchewan resources for Saskatchewan people
- 5 • Action to fight rising living costs
 - An agency to protect consumers
 - Restore farm machinery testing
- 6 Good labour-management relations:
 - Restore a climate which helps free and fair collective bargaining
 - Increase minimum wage to $1.25 per hour
- 7 Help Indian & Metis citizens with:
 - Better education
 - More jobs
 - More opportunity to take full part in decisions which affect them
- 8 A Municipal Finance Corporation to provide capital to local governments

Pol. Pam - CCF: Lab. action # 301

9 A dynamic program of street paving, tree planting, park development and town renewal to beautify and develop our towns and villages

10 Full development of our water resources and firm steps to prevent pollution

11 Loans for resident farmers with a 3-year interest-free period for young farmers

12 A Saskatchewan Housing Corporation to promote construction of 8,000 units a year

13 Fair play for young people by making drivers licence fees and insurance premiums depend on performance, not age

14 Honest responsible leadership in the interests of ALL the people of Saskatchewan

Federal Policy

A CCF government will urge:

- An immediate Federal-Provincial-Farm Organization conference to deal with the farm cost-price squeeze
- A Federal Prices Review Board to fight the soaring cost-of-living
